

Sun Life Hong Kong Limited including its successors and assigns is collectively referred to as “the Company”.

Personal Information Collection Statement

Personal data (including credit information, claims history and third party personal information) may be collected by the Company from time to time in various forms or processes. They are being collected, used and disclosed by the Company for the following necessary purposes: (i) processing and evaluating insurance applications and/or any other applications for financial services; (ii) administering and providing services in relation to insurance or financial products; (iii) processing, investigating and settling insurance claims and detecting and preventing fraud (whether or not relating to the policy issued by the Company); (iv) conducting customer surveys; (v) researching and designing financial, insurance or pensions products for clients' use; (vi) selecting and participating in reward, loyalty or privileges program and related service; (vii) contacting clients for the above purposes; (viii) purposes which are directly related to the above purposes; and (ix) complying with applicable laws, regulation or court order.

The Company may disclose such personal data for the above purposes: (a) to third parties who provide services in Hong Kong or elsewhere which assist the Company to carry out the above purposes, including claims investigators, insurance adjusters, medical advisors, health care professionals, medical service providers, hospitals, emergency assistance service providers, reinsurers, accountants, solicitors and professional financial advisors; (b) to banks for payment purposes; (c) to insurance brokers who are representing the policy owners or clients directly or indirectly; (d) to the Company's insurance agents and MPF intermediaries; (e) to the Company's related companies (as defined in the Companies Ordinance) including pensions services provider, financial services companies and insurance companies; (f) to the Hong Kong Federation of Insurers (or any similar association of insurance companies) and its members; (g) to the policy owner / employers of an insured employee under a group product; (h) to any third party service provider appointed by the policy owner who provides administrative services for the policy owner; (i) to organisations that consolidate claims and underwriting information for the insurance industry; (j) to fraud prevention organisations; (k) to other insurance companies (whether directly or through fraud prevention organisations or other persons named in this paragraph), the police and databases or registers (and their operators) used by the insurance industry to analyse and check information provided against existing information; (l) to any person to whom the Company or its related companies (inside or outside Hong Kong) are under an obligation to make disclosure under the requirements of any law, regulation or court order binding on or applying to or to which the Company or its related companies (inside or outside Hong Kong) are subject to, or under and for the purposes of any guidelines issued by regulatory or other authorities with which the Company or its related companies (inside or outside Hong Kong) are expected to comply and (m) as otherwise required or permitted by law.

The Company may also use and disclose such personal data in other ways with the consent of the data subjects or as otherwise required or permitted by law. If third party personal information is supplied to the Company by the clients, clients' service providers, claimants or applicants for services, such clients, service providers, claimants or applicants must inform these third parties about this personal information collection statement before they collect their information and supply it to the Company. For group clients, these information may include but not limited to information belonging to the clients' employees, the group members, the insureds and/or their representatives or dependents.

Clients in respect of whom personal data is being collected should understand that it is voluntary for them to provide these information, but failure to provide the requested personal data could mean that the Company is unable to process their applications or to continue the provision of the required services. Clients have the right to seek access to and request correction of any personal data the Company holds about them by sending a written request to Group Administration and Operations, Sun Life Hong Kong Limited, 10/F, Two Harbourfront, 22 Tak Fung Street, Hung Hom, Kowloon, Hong Kong. The Company may charge a reasonable fee for the processing of any such requests.

The Company may from time to time provide its up-to-date Personal Information Collection Statement at its website www.sunlife.com.hk.

The Company may also use contact details, basic personal data and policy details to contact clients with marketing information regarding the Company and third party pensions, financial and insurance products, including by phone calls, mail, email, SMS or any type of electronic message. The Company may not so use clients' data unless the Company has received clients' consents.
